

Library

June 1, 1967 - June 1, 1968

Library circulation dropped to 122 the past year. This is good, but not outstanding.

A number of our new members have used the library since January and more have made inquiries.

Eighteen bound volumes have been added in the past year besides a number of pamphlets.

While the library still does not have a complete collection of the older and rarer books, we do have a comprehensive collection of the newer books.
